KerryFest Barn Hunt May 4th and May 5th

Saturday evening: Informal get-together with good food, and good friends

KerryFest . 2019

May 3rd through May 5th, 2019

The 2019 KerryFest promises to be bigger and better than last year. The KerryFest Planning Committee has been working tirelessly on new events and upgrading the past venue. The Kerry Blue Terrier Club of St. Louis "Run for the Roses" Specialty Show, judged by Dr. Dana Cline, will be during the day on Friday. The Challenge of Champions will be held Friday evening in the Founder's Room at Purina Farms. Any Kerry Blue who is a Champion will be eligible to enter. During the judging there will be a buffet dinner for a reasonable cost and a cash bar. Saturday morning features the first of two Specialties: the USKBTC National Traveling Specialty, judged by Steve Schellenberg with Sweeps being judged by Scott Wasserman and later in the day the USKBTC Concurrent Specialty judged by Gene Possidento. Following the judging will be an informal "KerryFest Social" in the Checkerboard Café located by the Great Hall in the Purina Farms Event Center - the perfect place to meet new friends and old friends alike. On Sunday the St. Louis Club will hold their second specialty, judged by Mr. Charles L. Olvis, wrapping up a wonderful weekend celebrating the Kerry Blue Terrier.

The performance Kerries will not be overlooked. A Barn Hunt sponsored by the USKBTC is scheduled on Saturday and Sunday open to all breeds. We hope to branch out into other performance events in the coming years.

The goal of KerryFest is to build the Kerry entry in the conformation ring, while also offering some performance events. Selecting Purina Farms as a permanent and more central location for this regional specialty is the first step. With increased entry numbers and involvement, we can do more in years to come. We encourage everyone to attend, and help to celebrate this wonderful breed and event.

See you in St. Louis!
